Private Event Pricing

Standard creative experiences are $30 per participant, with a $225 minimum booking total.

The $225 minimum is not an additional fee. It is the minimum total for reserving the studio for a private event. Groups of eight or more paying $30 each automatically meet the minimum; smaller groups may add the difference to their booking total.

All experiences include supplies and instruction. Specialty projects are quoted individually.

THE FINER DETAILS

Everything You Need to Know Before Booking

How do I book?

Read this first, then fill out our Private Event Inquiry Form with your approximate group size, preferred project, and a few possible dates or a general timeframe. We'll discuss availability and help you select an experience that fits your group.

Private events are offered by appointment, primarily during afternoons, evenings, and select weekends. Dates and times must be confirmed with ArtDaze before booking.

How does payment work?

One Organizer Pays: If one person or organization is paying for the event, a $75 nonrefundable deposit is required to reserve the date. This deposit is applied toward the total event cost and is not an additional fee.

The remaining balance is due at least 7 days before the event, once the final participant count has been confirmed. Standard private events have a $225 minimum booking total.

OR

Everyone Pays Separately: We can create a private event listing where participants purchase their own tickets in advance. Combined ticket purchases count toward the $225 minimum.

If individual registrations fall short of the minimum, the organizer may choose to cover the difference. Otherwise, the event may be canceled under the terms agreed upon when scheduling.

How far in advance should we book?

Private events must be scheduled well in advance to allow time for planning and preparation. We recommend reaching out several weeks before your desired date, as availability is limited and dates are reserved on a first-come, first-served basis.

For standard creative experiences, final participant counts and individual ticket purchases are due at least 5 days before the scheduled event. This deadline applies to registration, not initial booking!

Specialty experiences may require earlier booking and registration deadlines to accommodate ordering and preparation.

FAQs

How long are private events?

Most private events last approximately two hours, including instruction and time to enjoy your creations together.

Do we need art experience?

Not at all! Our projects are designed to be approachable and enjoyable for all skill levels.

Can we bring food or drinks?

Yes! You're welcome to bring food and drinks to enjoy during your event.

Can everyone choose a different project?

Private events generally feature one selected project for the group. Some specialty experiences may offer a choice of designs or pieces when arranged in advance.

Can we decorate the studio?

Absolutely! You are more than welcome to bring themed decorations and partyware if you'd like. We provide table coverings and the studio is already colorful and party-ready. Please note: to help keep the studio clean and ready for our next artists, confetti and confetti cannons are not permitted.

When will pottery be ready?

Ceramic pieces require glazing and kiln firing after the event. Estimated pickup timing will be provided when booking.

Cancellations and Refunds

Organizer-Paid Events: The $75 booking deposit is nonrefundable. If you cancel at least 7 days before your scheduled event, any additional payments made beyond the deposit will be refunded. Cancellations made fewer than 7 days before the event are nonrefundable.

Individually Ticketed Events: Participants may cancel their registration for a refund up to 7 days before the scheduled event. Tickets become nonrefundable within 7 days of the event.

Specialty Experiences: Pottery painting, wooden door hangers, and other projects requiring specially ordered or custom-prepared materials may have different cancellation deadlines. These will be communicated prior to booking.
